

Start-up and Commissioning Package

Professional humidifier start-up and commissioning is an essential element in receiving the most out of a humidification system. It will increase the unit's efficiency and operational lifetime.

Utilize Condair to solely provide start-up and commissioning services from start to finish.

If you are using Condair to install your humidifier project, then why not follow up with our start-up and commissioning services?

Condair's Expert on Site Start-up and Commissioning will provide you with the added benefit of factory approved functionality and configuration. EOS will ensure your humidifier is operating at optimal performance for increased longevity. Have peace of mind knowing Condair is part of the process, every step of the way.

Complete your entire project with Condair. Checkout our Installation and Installation Support services including project management, installation, start-up, and product ownership training.

Benefits Of Condair EXPERT ON SITE Startup & Commissioning

- ✓ Technical expertise delivered directly from the manufacturer
- ✓ Efficient and long humidifier operational lifetime
- ✓ Validation of original specifications
- ✓ Peace of mind knowing that an expert will be on site
- ✓ Professional project management

Condair has a complete line of service offerings

Installation – Commissioning – Maintenance – Decommissioning – Refurbishment –
Re-installation – System Assessment – Product Training – Water Quality & Bacteria Testing

Request more information about Condair's start-up & commissioning services today.
Email us at na.service@condair.com!

EXPERT ON SITE

Start-up and Commissioning

For your Condair Humidifier and Evaporative Cooling Systems

Why Choose Condair For Your Start-up and Commissioning?

When choosing Expert on Site (EoS) to provide start-up and commissioning services for a Condair humidifier project, the facility owner, engineer, and contractor will reap the benefit of having the manufacturer's expertise delivered directly on site.

Your humidifier start-up will receive quality workmanship, guaranteed to the highest standard, giving everyone peace of mind.

Nobody knows their humidifiers better than Condair... We are the experts!

Quality | Inside and Outside the Box!

 condair